ALABAMA HAS "PEN" SCANDAL

Brutality, Murder in Convict Camps Claimed

LEGISLATURE MAY PROBE

Prisoners Beaten, Strung Up By Hands, Is Charge

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 28.—Brutality and murder in Alabama's state convict camps, is charged by forces campaigning to induce the legislature to abolish the prisoner leasing system.

Legislative reports, sent broadcast throughout the state by women's organizations, detailed stories of murders similar to the alleged killing of Martin Tabert in a Florida lumber camp, by a "whipping boss."

Convict Beaten to Death.

One legislative report circulated today described the beating to death of a convict leased to a mine owner, and the shooting of another prisoner in a coal mining camp.

Investigation of recent charges of cruelty in convict camps may be asked of the legislature. Since the law was ordered abolished in the prison camps two years ago, reports were circulated that workers were beaten with sticks and pipes. Stories of prisoners having been strung up by their hands, with feet barely touching the ground, until they were almost crazed by pain, were also heard.

Legislative Report.

A legislative report in discussing the convict lease system said:

"The system is a relic of barbarism. It is next to impossible for the average citizen, unfamiliar with conditions, to grasp or comprehend the horrors attendant upon such a system. It is hard to describe the cruelties, woe and misery growing out of such a system."

DRAKE REPORTS ON ROTARY MEET

Club Delegate Speaks Before Luncheon Session

A hearing of the report of R. L. Drake, president of the Port Arthur Rotary club, of the convention at St. Louis last week was the only business transacted in the weekly meeting at Hotel Plaza today.

Drake represented the local club, joining the Texas Special at Dallas besides attending the general sessions he also sat in the meetings of the presidents of the clubs.

After telling them of the entertainment features en route, at Dallas, and other points, where the local delegates met the other Texas delegations, he outlined the business session of the convention proper.

He brought with him a number of excerpts of the best addresses, which he will give to the club at a later date, he told them, because the suggestions and "sound Rotary sense" of the talks are applicable in Port Arthur.

That the club was satisfied with the reports as submitted by its president was evident from the applause that followed when he concluded his talk.

ROSS JURY OUT

The arrests were all made on Houston avenue, one man being found with 21 pints packed in a drink stand in the 100 block, while prisoners were taken in the 500 and the 1000 blocks also.

"Some of the defendants were charged with selling it, too," the officer concluded.

Driver Slams into Cars

Passenger Slams 30 Feet
by Unknown Driver

At a late hour yesterday, no report had as yet made of the automobile accident between Avenue and Ninth street about 30 p. m., Wednesday night, when a woman and two men were seriously injured and an unknown man driving one of the cars wrecked in the smash-up, escaped unharmed, police said.

The three persons injured, all of whom reside at 320 Shreveport avenue, were riding in a coupe. Both this car and the touring car, driven by the unknown motorist, were overturned.

Mrs. Mandie Fraizer, riding in the coupe, was hurled 30 feet as the cars collided, eye-witnesses said. She sustained a fracture of her left hip bone, gashes on her head and face, and numerous severe bruises over her body attending physician reported.

Frank Maffield, nephew of Mrs. Fraizer, suffered a fracture of his left arm above the elbow and a number of cuts and bruises on his head and body, and Jack Cavanaugh, driving the coupe, had several ribs broken and was severely bruised and cut, physicians said.

All of the injured persons were rushed to Mary Gates hospital in ambulances summoned from the Gramma establishment, following the accident.

Asked if the police were looking for the unknown driver of the wrecked touring car, Desk Sergeant G. W. Evans said this afternoon he did not know. Detective Harry Starns, relieving Desk Sergeant Evans during the noon hour, said no report of the accident had been made to him, and he could find none on the police records.

LIDDELL APPLIES FOR MEDICAL LIQUOR LAW

Surgeon T. J. Liddell of the quarantine station has written the consuls of the various countries whose ships come into the port here, for copies of their laws relative to the amount of medicinal liquor that those vessels are permitted to carry on arrival in this port.

The government, Dr. Liddell said, has ordered all surgeons of quarantine stations to familiarize themselves with the laws of the various countries in order to be able to judge what amount of liquor they should permit them to have when making application.

HOMEMADE WATCH: $1 TEMPLE IN CELLAR

MINNEAPOLIS.—There is one man in Minneapolis who would not need a sun dial by which to tell time if he were cast on a desert island with a little metal and a few water repairing tools. L. E. Dewey, watch expert in a loop jewelry store, carries a watch of which he made every part himself five years ago. "The 'wheels go round' just as well as they did the day it was finished. It took a year to make this watch, working at odd times in the evening. The total cost of the material was not over $10.

"Irrigation," says a typographical error, "is improving western crops." All farmers have plenty of it.

Professor Dewey of Columbia wants to make war an international crime. We want to say to make war is an international crime.

Concession Applicants Urged to File Permits

Permits for operating concessions in connection with the quarter centennial celebration to be held here on July 4, are being issued to organizations desiring to participate in these features, by the centennial executive committee, through J. R. Denney at Denney & Co., Inc. No permits will be issued to individuals, Denney announced.

With inception of the centennial day program, the city commission placed the letting of concessions attendant upon the affair in the hands of the executive committee. The permits will be issued only from this source.

Denney explained today that the time already has become limited for organizations desiring to operate concessions to make proper preparation for opening up in time for the celebration and that representatives of clubs, societies, etc., who desire permits should secure them without further delay.

RAIL RATES TO BRING CROWDS

Many Having Friends Here Expected July 4

An unequalled opportunity for persons living in East Texas and Southwest Louisiana to visit Port Arthur during the quarter centennial celebration on July 4th is offered through action of the St. Louis Pacific and Kansas City Southern railroads in placing into effect a round-trip fare of one and one-half times the regular one-way fare.

Many Port Arthurians who have relatives and friends are expected to take advantage of this reduced rate and invite them to visit this city next week.

The reduced rates are effective for tickets bought on July 3 and good for return on July 5 from points on the S. P. as far west as Liberty, Texas, and New Iberia, Louisiana, or the east. In the K. C. S. the rate is effective from DeQuincy on the north, south into Port Arthur and return.

Definite action by the commission made by General Centennial Chairman R. L. Drake that Congressman John C. Box has consented to be in this city for the July Fourth celebration and will make the principal address of the day.

Also, the use of the First Methodist church on Stillwell Boulevard and Lake Shore drive in which to conduct the Baby Show on that day has been secured. It will be held in the Sunday school rooms.

At 4:30 in the afternoon of Independence Day, eagle lovers will be given a rare treat at a pipe organ concert to be held in the same church. This event, in addition to the entertainment afforded, will present an opportunity of rest for the weary at that hour.

LAUGHLIN SEEKS MAIN EXTENSION

City to Act Friday on Request for Service

Sewerage and water extensions to his property at Dallas Avenue, between Thirteenth and Eleventh streets, were sought by E. A. Laughlin, owner, today.

While no definite action was taken on the request, the commission tentatively accepted the recommendation of J. O. Herpin, city engineer, that one sewer line and two 2-inch water lines be laid by the city across the property, provided Laughlin dedicates to the city a seven-foot right of way across the property.

The city engineer told the commission that it would be as cheap to lay two 2-inch water mains as one 4-inch water main, but that it seemed out of the question to ask the city to lay two sewer lines, because of action by the commission on a similar request made by Col. G. H. Eubank recently when the city refused to lay two sewer mains.

Definite action by the commission on Laughlin's request for the sewer and water service to his property is expected to be taken by the commission Friday. Mayor Logan indicated today. Under the present plans considered, the cost to the city would be between $250 and $300, the city engineer said.

Flirting is a very dangerous pastime. In New York, 224 marriage licenses were issued in one day. French are making wine to ship when Volstead act is repealed. May be real old when we get it.

THE RAPID-FIRE SALE OF PORTACRES “LITTLE FARMS”

Demonstrates the Confidence of Our Citizens in the
TYRRELL-COMBEST REALTY CO.

Back of the sale of every site, every lot, every tract that the Subdivider makes, there must be confidence. That confidence is only built up through years of personal contact in many transactions with a great number of people, and these transactions must profit the buyer.

It was this confidence in us that placed the Oaks Addition in the front ranks in Beaumont.

It was this same confidence that sold 887 sites in Griffing's Residential Park.

Again this same confidence overcomes us this week and removes from our selling maps more than nine-tenths of Portacres in four days time.

Some day, perhaps the public again will have the opportunity of placing their confidence in us.

If you wish one of these five acre tracts, on shell road, close to the refineries, high, well drained chocolate sandy loam, now is the time to act.

This property priced at $300 per acre is far under the price of less desirable property.

Terms 4 per cent cash and 1 per cent month.

ANDI

ALIBIES

Italy will send 42,000 immigrants to the United States the coming fiscal year, beginning July 7, and the Italian commissioner in Rome has selected the first batch of 7,000, giving the highest types of workers preference in the new quota. All quotas for this year, except Germany's have been filled.

Germans are not coming to America. Those who desert the fatherland go to Brazil or other South American countries. According to the government officials vast numbers of aliens are coming to the United States in the hope that they will be able to claim entry after July and be counted in the new yearly allotments.

If it were not for the drastic immigration laws millions of Europeans, for economic reasons, would come to these shores every year. Europe is over-populated, deeply in debt, poverty and disease ridden, and not an inviting place for the ambitious men and women workers who wish to get on in the world.

American ports of entry have been closed to all intents and purposes. Instead of 1,500,000 a year, as in pre-war days, less than a third of a million are admitted to the United States through the ports of entry. This is one of the things that the world war did for the American nation and the American people.

Organized labor fought for restricted immigration for fifty years and then it happened almost in a day. Not because of the demand of organized labor but for the reason that conditions not only demanded but justified the exclusion.

PINCHOT, THE BOSS

Pennsylvania lawmakers enacted a prohibition enforcement act and then defeated an appropriation of $250,000 to make the act effective. Politicians are rare birds. Many of them are for drastic laws and non-enforcement to the letter. Governor Pinchot asked for the law and the appropriation. His fellow republican lawmakers gave him the law and then they gave him the President Harding must have overlooked the Pennsylvania nullification act. He did not overlook the New York "repeal" act. He handed a smashing blow to Governor Al Smith but he was as silent as the tomb in his conduct, official or otherwise, when the news reached him that Pennsylvania had a new project and no money to provide for its enforcement.

Governor Pinchot is not discouraged. He has not lost heart. He is a man of large fortune. He is going to use Pinchot money if necessary, to trap and convict the higher ups identified with the illicit booze business in his state.

Pinchot is a man of his word. He said he would put the rum runners out of business if the people of Pennsylvania would elect him governor. Now he is on the road! Now he threatens to fill the jail and the penitentiary.

Incidentally, after he has won all along the line he entertains hopes that presidential lightning may strike him in 1928. There are men who are even looking ahead.

All the college presidents of America are for a world's court. All the college presidents were for a league of nations. They were right then; they are right now. War has pauperized and brutalized mankind.

Russia is coming back. Russia planted to grain last year 135,000,000 acres. In 1923 the acreage is placed at 159,000,000. In 1922 millions of Russians were fed by the relief commission supported by the generosity of America and Great Britain. Now there is a tremendous grain harvest in sight and the prosperous Russians should be able to feed their own this year. Former Governor Henry J. Allen, of Kansas, hit the nail on the head on his return from Europe when he asserted that if all the Europeans would go to work they would be able to feed themselves and in time rehabilitate the nations financially ruined by the war and the sword.

PASSING OF THE COMMONER

Senator Arthur Capper of Kansas owns two daily newspapers. Now the senator has taken over the mailing lists of the Commoner, William Jennings Bryan's paper, which recently ceased publication.

W. J. B. established the Commoner, a weekly newspaper, many years ago. This followed his defeat for the presidency in 1896. As an excuse for its founding or publication, the peerless orator and leader notified his readers that the press of the country was controlled by Wall Street and unreliable most of the time.

For years and years the Commoner was the organ, the Bible of thousands of Bryanites. They swore that it was the living gospel of the new dispensation, free silver and all. Meanwhile W. J. B. had incorporated himself and sold his writings, political and otherwise, to many of the leading newspapers.

This continued until the coming of the San Francisco convention in 1920 where W. J. B. decided to write the platform for the democrats of America and found himself in a hopeless, as well as a painful, minority. He was ditched; his platform was ditched. His choice for presidential standard-bearer was ditched, and this led him to say publicly, "My heart is in the grave."

He did not make speeches in that campaign. He renounced Nebraska and became a citizen of Florida. He accepted evolution as the greatest living issue and not many weeks ago the Commoner, like all things perishable, passed on. Now its mailing lists have been sold to a republican and under the agreement W. J. B. was born a partisan; he has lived a partisan; he is no longer a Commoner subscriber but nothing over his signature is to be of a partisan nature.

This is either a newspaper blunder or a grave social error. W. J. B. was born a partisan; he has lived a partisan; he would be impossible for him to write as a non-partisan; he will live out his days as a partisan; he will die a partisan regardless of Senator Arthur Capper or any other sunflower publisher or publication.

There are men who never change. W. J. B. is one of the changeless. There was only one Theodore Roosevelt. He is dead. There is only one Woodrow Wilson. His name is enshrined in the hearts of his countrymen. There is only one William Jennings Bryan. He came as a crusader, he is alone in his class and he will be a crusader until death calls him.

There are two million American wheat farmers. They produce more wheat than can be consumed at home and the foreign demand is light. There are two million cotton growers and the demand this year should be heavy.

Retail cost of food to the average family in 51 cities increased two-tenths one per cent from April 15 to May 15. Seventeen cities showed an increase of less than one-half one per cent. Average increase for the year ending May 15 was three per cent. There has been a slump in the price of wheat. There has been a slump in the price of pork. June figures should be interesting.

LOVE FROM SALLY Atherton to Mr. Joseph Graven Hamilton

MY DEAR MR. HAMILTON:

After your generosity and that of my other friends to me, no one need ever tell me that this world is not full of kind-hearted and sympathetic people.

I cannot write you all that is within my heart, but I will accept the check which Leslie sent me from you and you will be glad to know that there is great hope of Sam getting back his sight.

One of the greatest eye specialists in the country is coming to see him tomorrow, but I think that whatever he may say to him, it will not do him any more good than the words you said to him through Leslie—that if he recovered his sight, you would find a place for him in your business. It has given him an incentive to live.

Dear Mr. Hamilton, all I can say is that both Sam and I hope you will get what you deserve while you live and can enjoy it.

Sincerely and gratefully yours,

SALLY.

Letter From Mrs. Joseph Graven Hamilton to Her Daughter,

Mrs. Leslie Prescott

I am enclosing letter from Sally Atherton written to your father. I've rarely seen your father so touched as he was by it.

I am glad, my dear child, that you are coming home before we have to leave, and from what you have written, I think that John's mother must be rather a selfish woman.

You know, my dear child, that there are mothers and mothers. Some mothers give all and some mothers ask all. I have always tried to steer toward a middle course.

I have tried to give to my children everything that would make them as happy as I can, and I am grateful to you for your sympathy.

AUTUMN COLORS WILL HAVE A DECIDED EGYPTIAN TANG AND BROWNS LEAD THE WAY

SINCE all roads of fashion lead to the valley of the kings, colors are to have a decided Egyptian tang, and the "shades" of King Tut and his fair queen are to stalk anew in spite of the vogue they had in the spring, according to the arbiters of fashion's rainbow, who have announced the color mandates for next fall.

According to the color forecast as portrayed in the new fall 1923 season card, browns, syncopated in many variations, are to lead the way. Papyrus, cartouche, and mummy are the Egyptian browns, while cigarette, Havana and tobacco perpetuate the "good old weed."

Greens assume the second in command—turquoise, feldspar and Egyptian green are the most prominent. Other authentic Egyptian colors accurately reproduced are Carnelian and Egyptian red—also the blues of Faience, Luor and blue lotus.

Colors of the Italian renaissance are also to play a part on fashion's stage, such as flamboyant orange, called Florentine; two regal purples old coral, and a wine-dipped red, named doge. Rare old tapestry hues are likewise to delight the fashionists with soft Cobelin and Flemish blues, antique bronze and burnished gold, and piquant rose shades made famous by the master painter, Gragonard. Deep reds and spice-toned browns of India; gray, sand and navy blues will also keep step in fall's color pageant with the more daring and capricious colors for evening wear.

In addition to the sixty-six colors portrayed in silk, there are twelve woolen colors on the card. Among these, tan and browns are again stressed camel's hair, well described by its name; Sakara, a desert sand shade, and Perique, a tobacco brown, are the most favored. London smoke and phantom are new grays; everglade and pine tree the greens; Normandy, a true peasant blue; and Monterey, a sporty orange.

A special group of fun shoe, leather and hoseery colors features biggies and browns in a wide range of light, medium and dark shades. Grays are also shown, and a charming new shade called log cabin is a pleasing rosetinted castor.

Skirts will be shorter for fall, say fashion dictators. Already they are being worn about nine inches from the floor. Chinese embroideries are vieing with the Egyptian prints on the new gowns, and it looks as though King Tut will have a rival this fall.

Grey bathing caps are the latest thing at the beaches. They are rubberized squares of silk in brilliantly painted designs which wrap about the head and tie in Gatsby ends at one side. They are worn over the water-proof bathing cap.

Two-faced frocks are the latest word from Paris. Their fronts are entirely different from their backs. For instance, the front may be made in straight-line effect, while the back has a skirt with three tiers of ruffles. Again the back may be tucked from head to foot, while the front is entirely plain.

Navy blue is more popular than black at present for the street dress. Women do not seem to wear them on the street as generally as they did at the beginning of the season, but they are extremely popular for evening wear. The pendant type is the preferred type used for dressy occasions and tassels of seed pearls are particularly popular.

Bright colored shawls of crepe de Chine with fringe borders of the same shade as the shawl are popular for summer evening wear. One can purchase a large white square of crepe de Chine, edge this with a wide white fringe and have a shawl suitable for many evening occasions. If one wishes a certain color, it is best to make the shawl in white and have it dipped, as it is often difficult to find colored fringe on a desired shade.

AMONG the delightful affairs of the week, probably the most enjoyable was the entertainment given at the First Christian church last evening by members of the Adult Bible classes of the Sunday school of which Dr. and Mrs. William Oeselger are the teachers.

The entertainment assumed the unusual form of Miss H. T. Whitsen, Miss Margaret Bier, Mrs. W. J. Conley and Miss Whitman.

Dempsey-Gibbons Prize Fight May Be Postponed Says Report

Boxers Say Chiefs Will Give More Time To Raise Fight Funds

John O'Neill, Contributor to Championship Fund, Says Match Now Resembles "Hopeless Flat Tire" as Day Draws Nearer

SHIBBY, Mont., June 28.—Promoters of the Dempsey-Gibbons fight will ask the boxers and their managers to consent to postponement from July 4 to July 14, it was learned from reliable source of information today.

Confronted with the problem of raising $273,000 to pay Dempsey the $110,000 still owing on his guarantee and meet other indebtedness, the promoters seek more time in which to dig up the money.

Given a ten day stay, they believe they can scrape together enough cash for Dempsey by July 2 and in the remaining extra time can boos the ticket sales to raise the rest of the sum.

Consent of Jack Kearns and Eddie Kane, managers of the champion and the challenger, will be necessary before there can be a postponement, as the contract calls for the bout on July 4. Neither Kearns nor Kane was ready to discuss the postponement until the subject had been officially presented.

Following resignation of Dan Tracy, Great Falls man who was named as the representative of several creditors, Mayor Jim Johnson was back in the saddle as the big boss of the fight.

"I have $300,000 worth of unencumbered property and with this back of me I will say the fight is on." We have put too much in this not to go through with it," Johnson said.

Experts who have been watching both Gibbons and Dempsey in training have expressed the opinion that both the champion and the challenger are in fine shape.

Many of them say that Gibbons appears to be lighter and less strong than the champion and many criticize Gibbons for not having heavier sparring partners.

Others give Gibbons a fine chance on the ground that Dempsey, for natural reasons, cannot be as good as he was four years ago or two years ago.

Shelby was deep in mud again today after a heavy rain and the promoters of two rival profts in town were lending a voice to the side of the fight promoters.

"Hopeless Flat Tire."

GREAT FALLS, Mont., June 28.—The Dempsey-Gibbons July 4 fight transaction looks like a "hopeless flat tire." John O'Neill, one of the most liberal of Great Falls contributors to Dempsey's purse, declared here.

He predicted that the promotion of the kind that ever occurred. O'Neill would go down as the greatest fiasco made these statements after conferring with Dan Tracy, who yesterday resigned the dictatorship of the show, following a conference in Shelby. Dempsey must continue preparatory training until next Tuesday, when the final installment falls due, but O'Neill admitted that there is only the remotest chance that the champion will be called upon to raise a hand against Gibbons for his $200,000 already received and banked outside the state of Montana.

Third Round of Play Started in Washington

WASHINGTON, June 28.—The third round of the public links championship got under way here early today in ideal golfing weather.

Eight players fought for the right to compete in the semifinals to be staged this afternoon, 7 from the Atlantic seaboard and one from the Pacific coast. Raymond McAniff of Buffalo continued the favorite for the title.

Our guess at the Dempsey-Gibbons outcome is as good as any. We bet Christmas comes next winter.

Pitcher's Duel Ends In The Fourth When Texas Company Wins Ball Tilt

Leo Smith Outshines Tate, But Priester's Squad Hits Opportunely and Settles Issue With Island 5 to 2

Leo Smith outpitched Tate, new hurler for the Texaco Stars, on Lakeshore Diamond yesterday, but the Texas Company boys hit when hits counted, took advantage of the Island crew's shortcomings, and stepped back into the League leadership by ouping a ball game, 5 to 2.

The game was interesting all the way, and for three stanzas appeared a pitchers' battle that would not be settled easily.

In the last of the fourth frame however, the boys under the guidance of Skipper Nookie Priester, took advantage of the example set by Romero, who eluted out long three-bagger and added other hits in the game for their win, rushing four tallies across the counting rubber before Smith could retire them. The tallies came as the result of a single, a double and a triple, coupled together with two errors at short which Shires drew down.

The Islanders already had one run to their credit, collected in the first of the third, when Black was brought home as the result of a hit and an error.

And the Gascons staged a weak rally in the seventh to win the ball game, when they brought in another run, but the Texas club had already clinched the victory, having with a double and a triple, coupled together with two errors at short which Shires drew down.
